BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—The war department reported today that the Army is being demobilized twice as fast as was anticipated on the day that Japan collapsed.

Maj. Gen. Stephen G. Henry, chief of army personnel, told the senate military affairs committee that discharges have reached the rate of 400,000 a month.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—Snowballing discharges reaching a rate of 800,000 a month by Dec. 1 were the Army's answer today to senatorial ire at the slow pace of demobilization.

That would far exceed the 500,000 monthly figure promised by President Truman the night Japan surrendered, and would be more than twice the present rate.

The 800,000 figure was given privately by top Army officials to senators after a senate military affairs committee hearing yesterday called to investigate the slow pace of demobilization.

With senatorial irritation lessened somewhat by the Army's explanations, uniformed heads of personnel and training divisions were called before the committee today to continue their explanation of how demobilization is being stepped up.

The committee summoned Lt. Gen. Thomas T. Handy, deputy chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Stephen G. Henry, chief of personnel, and Maj. Gen. Edward Edwards, chief of organization and training.

Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson told the committee's opening session yesterday that discharges reached the rate of 12,000 daily—360,000 a month—in the first nine days of September.

He promised they would be stepped up to the point where 6,000,000 men will be out of uniform by next July 1.

After Patterson's testimony top generals told senators privately that 800,000 discharges a month is in prospect by Dec. 1.

The bottleneck to date, they told the senators, has been a shortage of Army separation centers.

The Army has 22 in operation now and four more scheduled to open soon. There are supposed to be 71 by Dec. 1 engaged in the (Continued on Page Two)

Total enrollment in Circleville public schools for the 1945-46 year was estimated at 1,468 Thursday, following enrollment of the first day, Frank Fischer, superintendent, said. Enrollment last year was 1,376. Exact enrollment cannot be determined for several days, since several more children will probably enter each school.

Enrollment by schools was: Corwin, total of 366, with 52 in the first grade; Franklin, 262, with 52 in the first grade; Walnut, 209, with 58 in the first grade, and High street, 207, with 42 in the first grade.

Total enrollment in Circleville high school is 424, with 115 in the eighth grade. Total first grade enrollment was 2140.

Two first grade classes are held at Walnut and Franklin street schools. Two sixth grade classes are included in the Corwin street school, as is three seventh grades. Eighteen students are enrolled in the special education class at Corwin.

Classes began at 9 a. m. Thursday with students in the grammar schools staying only a few minutes. High school students were dismissed at noon.

Schools opened with ten new teachers completing the staff, including Steve Brudzinski, former lieutenant in the Army, who will be coach. Several new teachers have been employed in the grammar school division of the school system.

'To Get Home'

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Major James P. Devereux, gallant commander of the heroic U. S. Marine garrison on Wake island, has been found safe and well in a prisoner of war camp on Hokkaido, northernmost of the Japanese home islands, and is awaiting evacuation by plane.

Thinner and grayer but still trimly alert and military, Devereux and other survivors of the Wake island garrison overcome by the Japanese in December, 1941, were found at Utashinai in north-central Hokkaido.

Americans of an air evacuation group reached the camp at 1 a. m. Tuesday and found Devereux and the entire camp personnel awaiting them.

Commanding officer at the prison camp, Devereux still thought first of the welfare of his men. He supervised the evacuation of several litter cases by train to the Chitose airfield before any announcements were made for his leaving.

"The first thing I'd like to get on the record is that we did not send that radio message saying, 'send us more Japs,'" he told the evacuation team.

Spain Abolishes Fascist
Salute; Step Is Taken
Toward First Election

MADRID, Sept. 13—The Spanish cabinet late last night abolished the Fascist salute, prepared to legalize a bill of rights and took a tentative step toward authorizing the country's first elections since the civil war.

The cabinet decisions were announced only 24 hours after the United States placed both Spain and Argentina in a class with enemy nations for immediate post-war trade as a further indication of American displeasure with their governments.

The decisions also well may have been influenced by criticism of the Franco government by the big three in the Potsdam declaration.

Spanish commercial and political circles called the American trade restrictions a severe moral blow whose effect will increase as they become known. News of the move was not published in Spanish newspapers.

The cabinet also avoided direct publicizing of its abandonment of the Fascist salute. It announced merely that a presidential decree had been issued annulling "decree number 263 of April 24, 1937"—the salute law.

A decree to determine a basis for the establishing of an electoral census was approved by the cabinet. This indicated that the government contemplated holding Spain's first general election since Feb. 16, 1936, when the left won a majority only to be overthrown by Franco's revolutionary forces.

The cabinet advanced the bill of rights already adopted by the Cortes (parliament) another step with a decision to establish a cabinet commission to prepare to put the measure into effect.

Foreign Undersecretary Cristobal Castillo was appointed consul-general of Tangier and it was announced that Spain had replied to a joint note from Britain and France on the Tangier situation.

Tomas Suner, counselor at the Spanish embassy in Paris and a former consul-general at Tangier, was expected to succeed Castillo as foreign undersecretary.

DOUGLAS PLANE
TO BE DRIVEN
BY TAIL MOTORS

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Sept. 13—Douglas Aircraft Co. today planned commercial development of a 48-passenger transport driven by two 15-foot propellers in the tail.

President Donald W. Douglas said the 77-foot, Allison-powered plane, the DC-3, would succeed the 21-passenger DC-3, long standard on U. S. airlines.

The new plane is 50 per cent faster than the DC-3 and carries more than twice the payload at slightly more than half the cost per pound. Engines beneath the cockpit connect with coaxial, counter-rotating propellers by drive shafts extending the plane's length.

Douglas said military experimental models of the new plane have been tested for more than a year.

CHUNGKING, Sept. 13 — Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer indicated a strong possibility today that American troops might be brought into China to occupy temporarily the country's major ports and cities.

"The object of bringing in American troops would be to maintain order and facilitate control by the central government in the area occupied by the Japanese," Wedemeyer said at a press conference.

Wedemeyer is commander of American forces in China and chief of staff of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

He said that under the contemplated plans, Peiping and Manchuria might be included in areas occupied by United States forces. He added that U. S. Marines might move into Shanghai.

Radio Programs Cut

NEW YORK, Sept. 13—Two of the country's major radio networks attempted to keep their airplanes filled through emergency measures today as they sought a speedy settlement of a technicians' strike.

Four hundred engineers and other technicians walked out at 6 p. m. yesterday as the National Broadcasting Company and the American Broadcasting Company were swinging into their heavy network programs.

The networks said the walkout was a wildcat strike which came less than an hour after the national association of broadcast engineers and technicians gave them a 30-day strike notice.

E. T. Powley, NABET president, said the men refused work when negotiations broke down yesterday. "The boys just went out on their own," he said. "We're trying to get them back, but we can't find many of them."

FOUR CHARGES

Demands To Meeting
Of Big Five

LONDON, Sept. 13—A Yugoslav spokesman revealed today that his government would present four major demands against Italy to the five power conference for consideration in the drafting of an Italian peace treaty.

The foreign ministers council recessed today to give translators and technicians time to prepare documents relating to claims against Italy for submission at tomorrow's meeting, and the Yugoslav spokesman said that his government confidently expected to be asked to present its views.

The ministers as yet have not formally invited the Belgrade government to present its claims, but the spokesman said an invitation is expected daily.

Yugoslavia will demand sovereignty over Istria, including Trieste, on the basis of the claim that the majority of the population is Slav.

Belgrade concedes that there is an Italian majority within Trieste and is prepared to grant that city autonomy under Yugoslav sovereignty. The spokesman said Yugoslavia is "sympathetic" with the big powers' plan for internationalization of the port.

Secondly, Yugoslavia demands reparations from Italy to help compensate for war damages estimated at $61,000,000,000 — or 40 percent of the nation's economic capacity.

LOAN OUT OF QUESTION

English Delegation Rejects
U. S. Suggestion Of Commercial Loan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—Great Britain, rejecting U. S. suggestions for a commercial-type postwar loan, prepared today to document its case for $3,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 worth of American assistance with facts and figures.

The American-British economic conference meets for the second time today but for its first business session.

The meeting comes after Lord Halifax and Keynes, heads of the British delegation, presented Britain's case for financial assistance at a joint press conference.

Both emphasized that they were not here as "suppliants"; that they wanted neither charity nor obligations Britain would be unable to discharge; and that they did not expect congress to approve any arrangements not in the long-term interest of the U. S. and the world.

They made it perfectly plain that the British consider a loan—even on a non-interest bearing basis—out of the question. They did not put it this bluntly but in effect they indicated that Britain wants what would amount to an outright grant—a sort of postwar mutual aid program.

Asked what kind of benefits the American people could expect from a grant to Britain, Keynes said he thought that getting world economy back onto the right track would be worth more to the United States than any of the sums he had heard mentioned.

Neither Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., nor Keynes, the British economist who accurately predicted in 1920 the disastrous economic consequences of World War I, would say exactly (Continued on Page Two)

MIDDLETOWN, Sept. 13—Aeronca Aircraft Corp. rolled its first peacetime light plane off the assembly line today—a two-place, 710-pound ship with a 65 horsepower engine.

Aeronca said the ship would have a retail price of $2,095.

The company built many of the popular "Grasshopper" planes used extensively by the armed services during the war as artillery spotters and scout planes.

The new craft, the "Champion," has a range of 270 miles, a cruising speed of 90 miles an hour and a landing speed of 38 mph.

PRESIDENT ASKS
PEACETIME WAR

CHICAGO, Sept. 13—President Truman today called upon the National Safety Council and the citizens of the nation—"in whatever capacity"—to mobilize their forces to solve the postwar accident problem.

"It is unthinkable," the chief executive said in a letter to Ned H. Dearbor, president of the council, "that the nation will lose the war against accidents after winning the war against the Axis. This must not and shall not happen."

The President's demand that the council lead a nationwide campaign against peacetime accidents followed a report sent to him by Dearborn on the results of a wartime campaign conducted by the council at the request of the late President Roosevelt.

Industrial Leaders See
StarvationJaps Who Made Tanks, Guns
Fear Revolution During Coming Winter

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Seven industrialists who helped to build Japan's vast war machine ate sizzling steaks today, and predicted death by starvation this winter for possibly 8,000,000 fellow countrymen. They declared the resulting chaos might bring a socialist revolution.

The men who made the tanks and guns said deaths might run as high as 10 per cent of the population, with the vast masses of the poor carrying the burden.

Grumbling about the weight which they themselves had lost during the past few months, the industrialists then treated American correspondents to a four-course black market dinner which included steaks broiled in butter and vintage French wines.

The industrialists estimated that the Japanese rice crop this year would yield about 10,000,000 tons compared with an average national consumption of 13,000,000 tons. They said the meager rice ration, which now is less than half what the Japanese normally ate, will not be filled this winter because Japan has been cut off from imports from Korea, Siam, and other Asiatic mainland sources.

The industrialists all expressed fear of a swing to the left as Japanese belts draw tighter, and one said there were signs already of a communist movement which had (Continued on Page Two)

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 13—Mark Lewis Streeter of Lewiston, Idaho, only American on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's first list of war criminals, insisted today that he had worked for radio Tokyo with his tongue in his cheek "to assist the American war effort."

Streeter, 47, who was captured on Wake island, admitted that he had gained the confidence of the Japanese by writing a poem bitterly denouncing the late President Roosevelt.

"I was playing a very dangerous game and there was no turning back or I would have lost my head," he said. "My real purpose was to assist the American war effort and to aid prisoners of war as much as possible."

(In Ogden, Utah, the accused man's father, George Streeter, and his wife expressed confidence that Streeter was innocent. The father said he believed the charges against his son were "all fictitious." Mrs. Streeter said, "ever since I've known my husband he's always hated the Japs so bad that he wouldn't go into a store owned by one.")

Streeter, who wrote scripts and did broadcasts for radio Tokyo for almost two years, couldn't explain away the fact however that his fellow prisoners hated him. He said (Continued on Page Two)

JAPS TO MAKE ARRESTS

Americans Halt Roundup To Let Nips Deliver
War Criminals

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Japan ousted Taketora Ogata, first and so far the only member of the present cabinet to be named a war criminal, as propaganda minister today and formally dissolved Imperial general headquarters.

The action came less than 24 hours after MacArthur listed Ogata as one of seven leaders of the notorious, militaristic Black Dragon society wanted for trial. Japanese sources said two other leaders listed were dead.

The Japanese announcement indicated that Ogata was retaining for the present his concurrent post as chief secretary of the cabinet. Japanese sources earlier denied that Ogata ever had been connected with the Black Dragon society.

Named to succeed him as propaganda minister—also known as president of the information board—was Tatsuo Kawai, a career diplomat who was minister to Australia at the outbreak of the war. The Japanese obviously hoped he would be more acceptable to the Allies than Ogata.

Kawai Sworn In
Kawai was sworn into office at the imperial palace at 4 p. m. (3 a. m. EDT).

Other developments included: 1.—Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu called on MacArthur at 3 p. m., perhaps to notify him of Kawai's appointment.

2.—Former Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo, Japan's No. 1 war criminal, appeared well on the road to recovery from his botched suicide attempt Tuesday. He no longer pleaded with doctors to let him die and his condition was described as "very satisfactory."

3.—American military police halted their roundup of war criminals named by MacArthur and granted a Japanese request for permission to deliver the accused men in "good health."

4.—Shigenori Togo, Tojo's foreign minister at the time of Pearl Harbor and No. 2 on the list of 47 war criminals, was revealed to have gone to the northern Honshu resort of Kuizara because of "poor health."

5.—Lt. Gen. Shigemori Kuroda, Japanese commander in the Philippines in 1943-44 and No. 13 on the list, told a United Press correspondent he did not know why he was accused of war crimes, but was ready to surrender.

6.—Radio Tokyo said MacArthur gave permission for Japanese airways to resume service on four lines Friday to expedite the Allied occupation of Japan.

7.—The Japanese government notified MacArthur that all 17,000 students at naval colleges and internment schools, now on Sum (Continued on Page Two)

PROJECT 75, OR
NIP OCCUPATION, IS COMPLETED

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Project 75—the aerial movement of thousands of troops and tons of equipment into Japan—was completed last night with a perfect record that included the evacuation of 7,179 liberated war prisoners.

During the two week period, with planes grounded for four days because of weather, the Air Transport Command landed 1,312 planes at Atsugi airfield near Tokyo. They brought in the 11th Air Force and 27th Infantry Division and various headquarters units, with a total of 7,872 tons of equipment and took the prisoners out on their return trips.

There was not a single fatality or injury reported. Two hundred C-54's are being redeployed on new Tokyo-Manila-San Francisco operating schedules with 3,500 officers and men under Brig. Gen. E. H. Alexander, commander of the Southeast Pacific Wing of the ATO.

LOAN OUT OF QUESTION

English Delegation Rejects U. S. Suggestion Of Commercial Loan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—Great Britain, rejecting U. S. suggestions for a commercial-type postwar loan, prepared today to document its case for $3,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 worth of American assistance with facts and figures.

The American-British economic conference meets for the second time today but for its first business session.

The meeting comes after Lord Halifax and Keynes, heads of the British delegation, presented Britain's case for financial assistance at a joint press conference.

Both emphasized that they were not here as "suplicants"; that they wanted neither charity nor obligations Britain would be unable to discharge; and that they did not expect congress to approve any arrangements not in the long-term interest of the U. S. and the world.

They made it perfectly plain that the British consider a loan—even on a non-interest bearing basis—out of the question. They did not put it off this bluntly but in effect they indicated that Britain wants what amount to an outright grant—a sort of postwar mutual aid program.

Asked what kind of benefits the American people could expect from a grant to Britain, Keynes said he thought that getting world economy back onto the right track would be worth more to the United States than any of the sums he had heard mentioned.

Neither Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., nor Keynes, the British economist who accurately predicted in 1920 the disastrous economic consequences of World War I, would say exactly

'CHAMPION' OFF AERONCA CORP. ASSEMBLY LINES

MIDDLETOWN, Sept. 13—Aeronca Aircraft Corp. rolled its first peacetime light plane off the assembly line today—a two-place, 710-pound ship with a 65 horsepower engine.

Aeronca said the ship would have a retail price of $2,095.

The company built many of the popular "Grasshopper" planes used extensively by the armed services during the war as artillery spotters and scout planes.

The new craft, the "Champion," has a range of 270 miles, a cruising speed of 90 miles an hour and a landing speed of 38 mph.

PRESIDENT ASKS PEACETIME WAR ON ACCIDENTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 13—President Truman today called upon the National Safety Council and the citizens of the nation—"in whatever capacity"—to mobilize their forces to solve the postwar accident problem.

"It is unthinkable," the chief executive said in a letter to Ned H. Dearborn, president of the council, "that the nation will lose the war against accidents after winning the war against the Axis. This must not and shall not happen."

The President's demand that the council lead a nationwide campaign against peacetime accidents followed a report sent to him by Dearborn on the results of a wartime campaign conducted by the council at the request of the late President Roosevelt.

Industrial Leaders See Starvation

Japs Who Made Tanks, Guns Fear Revolution During Coming Winter

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Seven industrialists who helped to build Japan's vast war machine ate sizzling steaks today, and predicted death by starvation this winter for possibly 8,000,000 fellow countrymen. They declared the resulting chaos might bring a socialist revolution.

The men who made the tanks and guns said deaths might run as high as 10 per cent of the population, with the vast masses of the poor carrying the burden.

Grumbling about the weight which they themselves had lost during the past few months, the industrialists then treated American correspondents to a four-course black market dinner which included steaks broiled in butter and vintage French wines.

The industrialists estimated that the Japanese rice crop this year would yield about 10,000,000 tons compared with an average national consumption of 13,000,000 tons. They said the meager rice ration, which now is less than half what the Japanese normally ate, will not be filled this winter because Japan has been cut off from imports from Korea, Siam, and other Asiatic mainland sources.

The industrialists all expressed fear of a swing to the left as Japanese belts draw tighter, and one said there were signs already of a communist movement which had

Only American On First War Criminal List Says He Aided U. S. War Effort

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 13—Mark Lewis Streeter of Lewiston, Idaho, only American on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's first list of war criminals, insisted today that he had worked for radio Tokyo with his tongue in his cheek "to assist the American war effort."

Streeter, 47, who was captured on Wake island, admitted that he had gained the confidence of the Japanese by writing a poem bitterly denouncing the late President Roosevelt.

"I was playing a very dangerous game and there was no turning back or I would have lost my head," he said. "My real purpose was to assist the American war effort and to aid prisoners of war as much as possible."

(In Ogden, Utah, the accused man's father, George Streeter, and his wife expressed confidence that Streeter was innocent. The father said he believed the charges against his son were "all fictitious." Mrs. Streeter said, "ever since I've known my husband he's always hated the Japs so bad that he wouldn't go into a store owned by one.")

Streeter, who wrote scripts and did broadcasts for radio Tokyo for almost two years, couldn't explain away the fact however that his fellow prisoners hated him. He said

NEW YORKERS GIVE WELCOME TO WAINWRIGHT

NEW YORK, Sept. 13—Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, who suffered the nation's greatest military defeat, arrived today to receive the accolade the big town reserves for the nation's most honored heroes.

The gaunt defender of Bataan and Corregidor, wearing a Medal of Honor he received from President Truman, smiled broadly as he stepped from his silvery C-54 transport plane at La Guardia field to the cheers of 30,000 persons and the booming of a 17-gun salute.

Americans Halt Roundup To Let Nips Deliver War Criminals

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Japan ousted Taketora Ogata, first and so far the only member of the present cabinet to be named a war criminal, as propaganda minister today and formally dissolved imperial general headquarters.

The action came less than 24 hours after MacArthur listed Ogata as one of seven leaders of the notorious, militaristic Black Dragon society wanted for trial. Japanese sources said two other leaders listed were dead.

The Japanese announcement indicated that Ogata was retaining for the present his concurrent post as chief secretary of the cabinet. Japanese sources earlier denied that Ogata ever had been connected with the Black Dragon society.

Named to succeed him as propaganda minister—also known as president of the information board—was Tatsuo Kawai, a career diplomat who was minister to Australia at the outbreak of the war. The Japanese obviously hoped he would be more acceptable to the Allies than Ogata.

Kawai Sworn In
Kawai was sworn into office at the imperial palace at 4 p. m. (3 a. m. EWT).

Other developments included:
1.—Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu called on MacArthur at 3 p. m., perhaps to notify him of Kawai's appointment.

2.—Former Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo, Japan's No. 1 war criminal, appeared well on the road to recovery from his botched suicide attempt Tuesday. He no longer pleaded with doctors to let him die and his condition was described as "very satisfactory."

3.—American military police halted their roundup of war criminals named by MacArthur and granted a Japanese request for permission to deliver the accused men in "good health."

4.—Togo In 'Poor Health'
Shigenori Togo, Tojo's foreign minister at the time of Pearl Harbor and No. 2 on the list of 47 war criminals, was revealed to have gone to the northern Honshu resort of Kuizara because of "poor health."

5.—Lt. Gen. Shigemori Kuroda, Japanese commander in the Philippines in 1943-44 and No. 13 on the list, told a United Press correspondent he did not know why he was accused of war crimes, but was ready to surrender.

6.—Radio Tokyo said MacArthur gave permission for Japanese airways to resume service on four lines Friday to expedite the Allied occupation of Japan.

7.—The Japanese government notified MacArthur that all 17,000 students at naval colleges and attendance schools, now on Sum-

PROJECT 75, OR NIP OCCUPATION, IS COMPLETED

TOKYO, Sept. 13—Project 75—the aerial movement of thousands of troops and tons of equipment into Japan—was completed last night with a perfect record that included the evacuation of 7,179 liberated war prisoners.

During the two week period, with planes grounded for four days because of weather, the Air Transport Command landed 1,312 planes at Atsugi airfield near Tokyo. They brought in the 11th Air Force and 27th Infantry Division and various headquarters units, with a total of 7,872 tons of equipment and took the prisoners out on their return trips.

There was not a single fatality or injury reported.

Two hundred C-54's are being redeployed on new Tokyo-Manila-San Francisco operating schedules with 3,500 officers and men under Brig. Gen. E. H. Alexander, commander of the Southeast Pacific Wing of the ATO.

mer vacation, had been dismissed. S.—The 43rd (New England) division arrived at Yokohama by ship and began entraining for Kumagaya, northwest of Tokyo, for occupation duties. The 172nd and 169th regimental combat teams went ashore today and the 143rd will follow in a couple of days.

'Brain Trust' Abolished
The official Japanese Domei agency said imperial general headquarters—the brain trust in Japan's prosecution of the Pacific war—was abolished formally 'as of noon today (11 p. m. Tuesday, EWT)' in accordance with MacArthur's orders.

At 2 p. m., Domei said, Gen. Yoshijiro Umezu, chief of the Army general staff; Admiral Soemu Toyoda, chief of the Navy general staff; Gen. Sadamu Shimomura, war minister, and Admiral Mitsumasa Yonai, Navy minister, proceeded to the imperial palace and reported to Hirohito on the abolition of imperial headquarters. Umezu an hour later, Domei said, announced demobilization of staff members and simultaneously sent instructions to this effect to various units throughout Japan as well as in overseas areas.

The decision to permit Japanese police to round up the remainder of the wanted Japanese war criminals was announced by the Eighth army. The Japanese will be given a few days to complete the arrests before American officers take further action.

Filipinos on the war criminal list, however, probably will be taken into custody by the Americans at Naha within a day or two. The Filipinos include Jose P. Laurel, who headed the Japanese puppet government at Manila.

Only Two Held
The only two Japanese so far in custody were Tojo and Admiral Shigetaro Shimada, navy minister at the time of Pearl Harbor. Shimada was under guard in a room at Yokohama's new Grand hotel, which also serves as MacArthur's headquarters.

The body of Field Marshal Gen. Sigiyama, who committed suicide at his headquarters yesterday, was removed to the Hatagaya Kasaba funeral station and will be cremated. Burial services will be held tomorrow.

Domei dispatches sought to prove that Ogata, the ousted information minister, had no connection with the Black Dragon society and speculated that his name might be removed from the list of war criminals.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE, SGT. AGAR WILL WED SEPT. 19

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 13—Although she still thinks 17 too young for most girls to marry, Shirley Temple was busy today completing details of her wedding to Sgt. John George Agar on Sept. 19.

Agar, 24-year-old Army Air Force physical instructor soon to be discharged, and the newly grownup screen glamour girl met two years ago at a swimming party.

When they announced their engagement last spring, Miss Temple and Agar said they would wait two or three years to marry. The war's end and woman's prerogative brought about the earlier date.

Wilshire Methodist church will be the site of the full-dress ceremony.

Agar is the son of Mrs. Lillian Agar and the late John Agar of Beverly Hills, Cal., and Lake Forest, Ill. Miss Temple, before her "retirement" at the age of 11 and recent return to the screen, earned $3,000,000 as America's highest-paid child star.

DIVORCE DEFENDANT IS GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE

Marjorie B. Crago was sentenced Wednesday by common pleas court judge, Emmitt L. Crist, to serve 30 days in the county jail for violation of a restraining order issued by that court earlier.

She was said to have approached her step-daughter and to have used vile language in her presence and to have attempted to attack her. The judge suspended 29 days of the sentence, but she was confined to the county jail until 5 p. m. Wednesday afternoon.

Marjorie is defendant in a suit for divorce, filed by Plummer Crago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyle, West Mount street, who have been visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Alvis, Columbus, have returned home.

third of Yugoslavia's 1,700,000 war casualties.

Thirdly, Yugoslavia demands the return of "material goods" including large portions of the nation's gold reserve and much factory machinery which it is charged the Italians removed.

The spokesmen said the Italians removed entire salmon packing factories from Dalmatia "lock, stock and barrel."

As a fourth point, Yugoslavia insists upon the deliverance of Italy's war criminals responsible for atrocities committed during the occupation. The Belgrade government demands that these criminals be returned to Yugoslav courts for trial.

"Dozens of major war criminals are at large in Italy, with some holding office under the present government," the spokesman charged, adding that not one had been handed over to Yugoslavia for trial.

He said the Belgrade government is preparing a survey of Italian war criminals which will be completed next week for submission to the ministers' council.

It was understood that when the council meets again tomorrow it will also consider French, Greek and Austrian claims against Italy.

MAJ. DEVEREUX SAFE IN CAMP

There were just too many of them to hold off any longer. But I did have to give my boys the cease firing order three times."

Although a lieutenant colonel—or probably a colonel by now—Devereux said he will stick to his major's rank until he gets his official orders.

Told that the defense of Wake island had been filmed in a motion picture with Brian Donlevy portraying him, Devereux said he would like to see it but he wants to "get home first."

He discussed the Wake island battle—which the Japanese have admitted cost them 1,000 men in the actual invasion—and said the Americans lost only 86 men.

"Our actual losses weren't great. Of several groups of Marines we lost five officers and 41 men. Of ten Navy officers and 58 men we lost three men and about 37 of some civilian workers."

Sgt. Al Martin, Roanoke, Va., of the 5th air force, who was with the rescue party said that Devereux would remain on Hokkaido until all his men were evacuated.

Devereux' tiny garrison of 385 Marines wrote an epic in American history during their valiant stand on Wake island. They were under attack by 200 planes and long-range naval guns during 12 attacks for two weeks before the Japanese succeeded in landing troops ashore.

During their bitter resistance against hopeless odds, the Marines shot down some 12 planes, sank one cruiser, a destroyer and a submarine and damaged two other destroyers.

RUSSIA GRANTS ECONOMIC AID TO ROMANIANS

LONDON, Sept. 13—Russia relaxed armistice restrictions and extended economic aid today to Romania's government which has been the object of Anglo-American criticism.

The action was announced by radio Moscow just as foreign ministers of the big five were getting ready in London to tackle the subjects of peace treaties for Romania, Italy, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland.

There was no indication that Russia had consulted either the United States or Britain in advance of granting the concessions to Romanian prime minister Petre Groza and foreign minister George Tataru, who have been guests in Moscow since September 4.

Both the United States and Britain have refused to recognize the Groza government on grounds that it is dominated by Communists and not representative of the Romanian people. Russia extended recognition soon after the government was formed.

task of channeling soldiers back into civilian life.

The rate of discharges will snowball as each of the new facilities becomes available, they promised.

Meanwhile, they said, the rules for hardship releases are being liberalized and the point score for discharges will be lowered progressively.

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson, D., Colo., ranking Democrat on the committee and one of those who talked to the generals after Patterson's testimony, predicted that new age and dependency categories for discharges also will be added to speed the entire demobilization procedure.

Johnson, who has been one of the chief critics of the demobilization program since the European war ended last May, said he was far more satisfied after talking to the generals.

"I feel better about it now and believe we can expect constant improvement," he told reporters.

GERMAN DAMAGE TO RUSSIANS IS $13,580,000,000

LONDON, Sept. 13—The Germans caused damage to Soviet territory estimated at $13,580,000,000 during the war, a report of the Extraordinary State Commission for investigation of German war crimes said tonight.

According to Radio Moscow the lengthy report said Germany must compensate Russia for damage inflicted on Soviet National economy and Soviet citizens.

Damage included destruction of 4,000,000 houses which were the personal property of the workers and farmers and confiscation of 1,150,000 horses, 17,000,000 head of cattle, 12,000,000 pigs, 13,000,000 sheep and goats and an enormous amount of personal property.

"The German invaders," the report said, "are guilty of organizing and carrying out on Soviet territory the destruction of towns and villages."

The Germans were charged with completely or partially destroying 1,710 towns and more than 70,000 villages and hamlets in an area of 174,000,000 acres of arable land. Eighty million Russians lived in this area before the war.

FOUR VETERANS BURN TO DEATH ON CROWDED BUS

AYER, Mass., Sept. 13—Four overseas veterans enroute to Fort Devens for furloughs or discharges were burned to death and 35 others were injured today when a crowded bus overturned, exploded and was destroyed by flames in the center of this town.

Cause of the accident still was undetermined several hours later. The dead were Vincent J. Battle, Providence, R. I., Charles W. Canini, East Boston, Mass., and two unidentified soldiers.

A few minutes before the accident the troops had arrived by train at Ayer station from Camp Kilmer, N. J. All of those burned or otherwise injured were taken to Lovell general hospital at the fort.

mitted that this bitter feeling had caused him to move into a separate barracks, although he continued to eat with the other internees.

He was a civilian employee on Wake island when it fell in December, 1941. He spent 40 days there as a metal, lathing and plaster worker before the Japanese attacked.

"I believe the course I took was beneficial to the United States," he said. "I can prove it by witnesses and papers I've saved. I know I can justify my actions before the United States government."

The slightly built, full-bearded former fruit and dairy farmer freely admitted disseminating the worst type of propaganda over radio Tokyo but claimed that he frequently crossed up the Japanese by slipping in material detrimental to them.

After leaving Wake, Streeter was taken to Woonung, near Shanghai, where he worked as an electrician before being moved to the Kiangwang camp near Shanghai.

At Kiangwang, Streeter said he got the idea of escaping but figured he couldn't make it so he decided to curry favor with the Japanese in order to accomplish his purpose, which he said was "patriotic rather than selfish."

LABOR LEADER WANTS RUSSIAN TYPE ECONOMY

BLACKPOOL, Eng., Sept. 13—Sir Walter Citrine, general secretary of the trades union congress, today advocated patterning British economy after that of Russia.

Addressing the congress in annual convention, Citrine said: "Expressing my own opinion, I think it would be an excellent thing if the British government were able to plan the production, consumption and general economic life of the country in the way that is done in Soviet Russia."

Citrine, answering criticism by the American Federation of Labor, said labor must get along together. George Meany, fraternal delegate of the AFL to the convention here, yesterday criticized the world trade union congress for inclusion of the CIO and Russian labor groups.

"This is the time for frankness," Citrine said. "It is important that we should understand the point of view of the AFL. It is also very important that the AFL should understand our position."

remained underground during the war.

A spokesman for the group claimed that the industrialists attempted to warn Japanese military leaders even before the fight started that Japan's industry could not support a total war. He said they tried to tell the military clique when Japan was beaten but "we were cowards. We couldn't say too much for fear of being put in jail or killed."

He admitted, when pressed, that no leading businessmen had been jailed and that the industrialists had offered no objections to the war as long as Japan was on top.

He said frankly: "we were very badly beaten. We could not have gone on very much longer." The others all nodded agreement.

During the war steel production in Japan sagged from 4,300,000 tons in 1941 to 2,987,000 tons in 1944. This year it would have been less than 1,000,000 tons.

In 1943, Japanese shipyards turned out 1,250,000 tons of shipping but this year the total would have been around 500,000 tons. Shipping losses rose from 1,000,000 tons in 1942 to 3,250,000 in 1944.

The industrialists unlike most of Japan's militarists, declared that the Suzuki cabinet had reflected the real feeling of the nation when it began to sue for peace.

SCHNEIDER WILL OPEN FURNITURE STORE IN CITY

Circleville will have a new furniture store about November 1, it was announced Thursday.

Charles J. Schneider, Chillicothe, has leased the second and third floors of the Crist building and the store room now occupied by Mykrantz drug store from J. Wallace Crist.

According to present plans, entrance to the new store will be through the Mykrantz store room. Furniture will be displayed there and also on the floors above the new Gallaher drug store. An archway will lead from the ground floor room to the elevator which will take customers to the upper floors.

Mr. Schneider said that he planned to carry a full line of furniture and appliances. He plans to set up model rooms in some of the upstairs space.

The new local store proprietor has had about 15 years experience in the furniture business. He was connected with the M. N. Billings company and Morrow and Schneider at Chillicothe. He left the furniture business to enter armed service.

The new store will open as soon as remodeling of the building can be completed.

BRITAIN WANTS OUTRIGHT GRANT FROM AMERICA

3 To 6 Billion Aid Program Requested By Delegates To Conference

what kind of proposal they would make. But Keynes said there were many possibilities between a commercial loan and an outright grant.

Keynes said the British were faced with two alternatives:

1. To try to work out their economic troubles with as little outside help as possible by continuing to use a system of bilateral trade pacts and retaining all of their restrictive wartime trade and financial controls. This system is obnoxious to the U. S.

2. To work out with the U. S. and with U. S. aid a way out of returning as soon as possible to "normal trade practices."

Keynes said the British delegation preferred the second plan but without financial assistance in the transition period might be forced to follow the first.

The one positive point made by both Keynes and Halifax on stated before by British officials was that Britain could not take on additional foreign debts.

The easy course, Keynes said would be for us to accept such loan on "more or less commercial terms" but without either part paying too much attention to Britain's ability to pay.

Keynes predicted that the deception would be short-lived, tried, and asserted that Britain was not going to lend itself to an "such soft and deceptive expedient."

"We are not in the mood, as we believe and hope that you are not in the mood, to repeat the experiences of last time's war debts," Keynes said. (Keynes predicted 1920 that the Allies would default on their war debts, as they did.)

CITY LIBRARY RESUMES FULL TIME SCHEDULE

Many New Books Ready For Use By Children;
Plan Story Hour

Circleville Public library went back to its full time schedule Thursday the same date city schools reopened. It was announced by Mrs. Enid Denham, librarian. Library hours will be from 9:00 A. M. to 8:00 P. M., Monday through Saturday, with a children's story hour to be held on Wednesdays, at 4:30 P. M. First story hour of the season will be devoted to dog stories suitable for the five-year-old to fourth grader. Many new books have been purchased during the summer months for the use of the children this coming fall. New primers for the just learning to read, adventure and animal stories for the more advanced, career books, boy mechanics, books on sports and outdoors for high school are among them.

Some of the primers include: Happy Children; Home for Sandy; Nick and Dick; and its older companion Story Book of Nick and Dick; Boys and Girls at School; Christmas Story, by Annie Cameron. Friends and Neighbors; Smoky the Crow; Fuzzy Tail; In Animal Land; Happy Times; Playmates; Rack Book; Our New Friends; We Want to Know; Good Friends; Adventures in Science; David and Jean; Bob and Judy; To and Fro; and Day by Day.

For the juvenile reader there are: Shift to the Right, by Chute, a story of sports and sportsmanship; Mickey, the Horse that Volunteered, by Carl Glick; a story based on fact of a wild horse that wanted to join the army; Nathan, Boy of Capernaum, by Lillie; Dixie Dobbie, by Margaret and Helen Johnson; Katharine Gibson's Arrow Fly Home, a story of Ohio's history; Bronze Arrow Mystery, by L. A. Wadsworth; Jumper, life of a Siberian horse, by Kalashnikoff; Duvoisin's They Put out to Sea, and account of intrepid explorers; and Dolly Madison, Quaker Girl, by Monseil.

Outstanding among the books for high school age are: Shippen, New Found World; Navy Wings of Gold, by Taylor; White Feather, by Allen; Stocky Boy of West Texas, by Baker; From Star to Star, by Kelly; Singing Cave, by Margaret Leighton; New Broome Experiment, by Adam Allen; Silver Pencil, by Alice Dalgleish, and a new copy of the ever popular—suitable for all ages—Lassie Comes Home.

FIREMEN FIGHT BARN FIRE ON WAY TO ANOTHER

Add another tall tale for firemen to tell on cold nights. Circleville firemen Wednesday at 5:10 p. m. received a call to extinguish flames in an automobile on Route 22. Enroute to answer this call, another fire was discovered near Circleville on Route 22. The barn on the Schein farm was burning when firemen passed. Though firemen attempted to save the structure, it was completely destroyed. Loss was estimated at $5,000.

If you can qualify, we offer full employment to a few additional men between the ages of 18 to 40.

21 SERVICEMEN DISCHARGED IN LAST 10 DAYS

Twenty-one Circleville and Pickaway county servicemen have been discharged from the Army within the past ten days.

These men will be issued reclassification cards within the next several weeks by the local selective service board. Any veteran needing aid in securing employment or educational aid should contact the selective service board, the USES or the Soldiers' Relief Commission.

Dischargees listed were Carl F. Houser, Circleville; Francis A. Tilton, Circleville; Ralph E. Wallace, Circleville; Eugene A. Shonkwiler, Williamsport; Elmer D. Hill, Circleville; Harold T. Anderson, Circleville; Darwin L. Rossiter, Kingston; Ralph O. Roby, Circleville; Max H. Yeakum, Derby; Orval L. Yinger, Mt. Sterling; James T. McCain, Circleville; Paul R. Wellington, Ashville; Royal E. Kearns, Atlanta; Russell W. Fausnaugh, Ashville; Gerald C. Melvin, Circleville; Paul J. Willis, Mt. Sterling; Robert E. Timmons, Circleville; Oscar C. Boyssell, New Holland; William H. Pettibone, Ashville; Richard G. Herkless, Circleville; Freddie A. Mouser, Derby.

SIGNATURES ON DEEDS MUST BE LEGIBLE NOW

After October 11, Pickaway county recorder announces, no deeds and other legal instruments with illegibly written signatures will be accepted for recording, unless the names are typewritten, printed or stamped under the signatures.

This ruling is in accordance with a state-wide law which goes into effect on October 11.

At the same time several other laws will be enforced. The recorder will be authorized to collect a 15-cent fee for the cancellation of chattel mortgages, and to establish a separate index for "factor" liens. At the present time there is no charge for chattel mortgage cancellations.

Wagging tongues can cause a lot of "mad dog" trouble. Like wagging tongues that gossip about our soldiers drinking too much around Army camps. It's just not true, as the government found out and told us. Milk and beer are among a soldier's favorite drinks—which is why we have the best behaved army in history. But those ugly rumors are bound to hurt morale and cause hard feeling.

From where I sit, wagging tongues can cause a heap more trouble than mad dogs.

SCOUT EVENTS ARE PLANNED

Family Picnic And Court Of Honor Scheduled For September 23

Plans for coming events were made at the Pickaway district Boy Scout committee meeting held Wednesday night at the Contaner Corporation of America offices.

Next Wednesday a Scoutmasters' round table meeting will be held. On Sunday, September 23, a district family picnic and court of honor will be held in Ted Lewis park. Plans are being made to conclude the program before the church services held in the park each Sunday night.

Plans also were made to take Scouts to Camp Lazarus for an overnight meeting. Several Scouts will usher at Ohio State football games this season.

District Chairman Norbert Cochran named Dr. G. D. Phillips, Frank Wantz, James I. Smith Jr. and Fred Orr to a nominating committee which will select officers for next year. Named to the committee to plan the annual meeting, which will be held in January, were John Moore, Dick Morris, Leonard Lytle and Bill Littrell.

Committeemen present approved the naming of I. W. Kinsey's men's store as Scout supply distributor. A "Boy's Life" pennant was presented to Troop 121, which has 100 per cent subscription to the Scout magazine.

Reports on various activities were given by committeemen and District Scout Executive Gil Bolin.

SCOUT EVENTS ARE PLANNED

Family Picnic And Court Of Honor Scheduled For September 23

Plans for coming events were made at the Pickaway district Boy Scout committee meeting held Wednesday night at the Container Corporation of America offices.

Next Wednesday a Scoutmasters' round table meeting will be held. On Sunday, September 23, a district family picnic and court of honor will be held in Ted Lewis park. Plans are being made to conclude the program before the church services held in the park each Sunday night.

Plans also were made to take Scouts to Camp Lazarus for an overnight meeting. Several Scouts will usher at Ohio State football games this season.

District Chairman Norbert Cochran named Dr. G. D. Phillips, Frank Wantz, James I. Smith Jr. and Fred Orr to a nominating committee which will select officers for next year. Named to the committee to plan the annual meeting, which will be held in January, were John Moore, Dick Morris, Leonard Lytle and Bill Little.

Committeemen present approved the naming of I. W. Kinsey's men's store as Scout supply distributor. A "Boy's Life" pennant, which has 100 per cent subscription to the Scout magazine.

Reports on various activities were given by committeemen and District Scout Executive Gil Bolin.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Sergeant Roselyn Dreisbach White, MCWR, wrote her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin W. Dreisbach, Sr., route 1, that she does not expect an early release from the Marine Corps.

Sergeant White said she had been declared essential as a motion picture projectionist at El Toro Marine Air Base. She and her husband are both stationed there. After the Whites are discharged, they expect to make their home in Fresno, where he lived before entering the Marines.

Sergeant White's address is: Sgt. Roselyn D. White, MCWR, AWR-7, Barracks 58, MCAS, El Toro Marine Air Base, Santa Ana, California.

Sergeant Frank E. Meister, route 2, Amanda, was honorably discharged from the Army at Indiantown Gap, Pa., Separation Center, Tuesday.

On the day he would have been eligible to register for service with the armed forces at any local selective service board, Nelson Bell, son of Mrs. Nelson Bell, Walnut township, celebrated his eighteenth birthday on Samar Island in the Philippines.

On that date, August 14, war with Japan was officially over. Immediately after finishing his boot training, he was sent to Samar, and there was assigned to a ship. He sent his mother this address: Nelson D. Bell, Seaman second class, 5707680, USS LCI (L)-780 c/o Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, California.

Bob Liston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Liston, route 3, is enroute to the Pacific for duty there with our troops.

He sends his parents this address: Sergeant Lawrence R. Liston, Jr., 35218622, Company E, 343rd Infantry Regiment, 86th Infantry Division, APO 450, c/o Post Master, San Francisco, California.

Private First Class Harold T. Anderson, 325 East Franklin street, and Tech. Sergeant Orrin D. Diltz, 380 Walnut street, were honorably discharged from the Army at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, Separation Center, Tuesday.

T-4 Kenneth O. Smith, 321 East Ohio street, is spending a 30-day furlough at home, after 7 months in France and Germany.

Formerly in ASTP at Ohio State University, he received the good conduct medal and the ETO ribbon with 2 battle stars.

He served as chief clerk for the 674 Ordnance Ammunition Company.

Scheduled to go to the Pacific, his company was at Port Marseille, ready to be shipped when official news of the Japanese surrender came. Immediately, they were ordered back to the United States.

At the termination of his furlough, Smith will report to Camp Gruber, Oklahoma, where he, with two other soldiers, will set up the company before being released from service.

T-5 Merl W. Lape, 160 East Water street, was honorably discharged from the Army at Indiantown Gap, Pa., Tuesday, after being overseas for 32 months.

Entering the Army on February 19, 1942, he served overseas in Africa, Sicily, Pantelleria, South France and Italy.

He arrived back in the United States on September 6, at Newport News, Va., and was discharged less than a week later.

He wears 8 battle stars, for participation in the battles of Tunisia, Italy, Naples, Foggia, Rome, Arno; Southern France, Rhineland, North Apennines and Po Valley.

SINGAPORE'S VARIED LOT

THE return of Singapore to British hands is another colorful chapter in the history of a city which, though younger than most, has already had more than the average of striking events.

Singapore, whose name means "Lion City," was founded by settlers from Sumatra early in the Christian era. Though it was important as late as the 14th century, it fell into decay and by 1800 had only 150 inhabitants. Then one of England's great empire-builders, Sir Stamford Raffles, recognized the value of the site, got permission to build a British commercial headquarters, and in 1824 bought the island from the Malay sultan of Johore. One reason for choosing this site was its extraordinarily fortunate climate. Though it is only one degree from the equator, the temperature stays within a steady range of 70 degrees to 90.

In the 1920's the British fortified it with the idea of making it impregnable. They succeeded with the sea approaches, but forgot that Singapore had a back door, the jungle land in its rear. This was left almost unguarded, and here came the successful Japanese assault.

The humiliation of the loss of Singapore was so great that for years any Englishman who seemed burdened with excessive pride could be taken down merely by murmuring one word, "Singapore."

JAPS LEARN

THOSE Japs are intelligent in many ways, and have a capacity for learning new things. The most illuminating evidence comes from Rear Admiral M. Kanazawa, who had a large part in turning over Japan and her resources to the Allies. He promised that the surrender would be orderly, and he kept his word. And he even showed a rather delicate sense of humor.

"Even the school children have been instructed to behave themselves," he announced. And they obeyed. But his patient conclusion was the most memorable thing he had to say.

"I think too many airplanes beat us," he observed. "Japan made very many strategic mistakes. But the biggest mistake of all was starting the war."

It certainly was. But the Japs had to be licked thoroughly sooner or later, and it is probably fortunate that both nations have now got that operation over with.

These are "times that try men's souls" and also times that make men great.

A jungle tribe from the Dutch East Indies, the Batak, have six secret languages for religious observances. This surpasses the record of the man who boasted that he could speak three languages: American, baseball and poker.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Hohum. Electrifying issues are being pressed bravely to the fore. Current thrill is the staggering challenge of commerce Secretary Wallace to the nation to provide 60,000,000 jobs. Gosh, these mosquitoes are thick at this time of year. I must get some DDT. The challenge is addressed, the promotion says, to "Americans who are not frightened of setting their sights high; Americans who are not afraid to shoot." It's a book. The cost price is $2 from which I suppose the great humanitarian Mr. Wallace gets 50 per cent royalties. Flocks of flies, as well as mosquitoes, this time of year! Did you ever see them worse in September? Staggering I call them.

I think I will skip the thrill of paying $2. It is not that I am frightened or afraid to shoot, but a matter of economy. Free, I can get just about the same things, with actual facts and figures from the committee for economic development, Paul Hoffman, of Studebaker, president—no royal-industry will have 53,500,000 jobs this time. CED made a business survey saying first peace year, without molestation by Mr. Wallace. Darn that fly again; he left a speck of blood where I swatted him.

If you count the men still in the armed services, you have your or Mr. Wallace's 60,000,000,000, beg pardon I mean 60,000,000 (for a moment I thought I was dealing in the budget which is $66,000,000,000 this year) without anyone getting staggered, or frightened.

If you are not afraid to shoot, I suggest you, Mr. Wallace, CIO et cie shoot at 130,000,000 jobs, which goal should bring $3 a copy. My aim is high. I hereby adopt the 130,000,000 job goal, without charge—but not altogether.

I have a new book out myself which sells for $1.50, not on this subject, but on a live one, the juvenile oligarchy and the progressive education trust. It is called "The Ease Era," and while Mr. Wallace will merely stagger you for $2, I will burn you for $1.50. If you do not burn I will refund your money personally, although I am not afraid to shoot, write to William B. Erdmans Publishing Co., Grand Rapids, Michigan, and do not fail to shoot your check along in any event as I need this rakeoff of 75 cents each to pay the tax collector who is now waiting outside the door. (Think of Wallace getting $1 per copy royalty for all that obsolete data, when I get only 75 cents for the studied collection of my sound viewpoint on the most thunderous question of the hour over a year and a half.)

Similarly colossal is the way the Wallace-CIO program is developing in congress—the forthright, daring ventures for the common man, the common unemployed man who presumably will not get one of the 60,000,000 jobs. Proposal no. 1 would give 90 per cent of non workers only $5 more a week for 6 more weeks, making $25 in all for 6 months in all (think of these amazing new dimensions.) Also what will make you catch your breath, the second stupendous proposal promising every man a job leaning on a rake for the government or warming those nice Constitution avenue chairs in aircooled comfort, if unable to find the 60,000,000 jobs.

I wish I could afford air cooling; this abnormal September humidity is about to get me; 70 degrees, it is today. Of course,

DIET AND HEALTH

Treatment of Ankle Sprains

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WHEN a person sprains his ankle, not only does he suffer pain and inconvenience, but one or both of two things may happen. There may be complete or partial tearing of the ligaments which hold the bones together, or there may be the formation of a blood clot. By means of a complete examination, according to Doctor John M. Wright of the Medical Corps of the United States Naval Reserve, and the taking of X-rays, it is possible to tell just about what type of damage to the ankle joint has occurred.

Ankle Cast

If there has been a complete tearing of the ligaments, the best treatment, Doctor Wright thinks, is to have the patient wear a cast over the ankle for at least six weeks. This cast is of the type which allows the patient to be up and about.

A complete rupture of the ligaments on the outer side of the ankle is not unusual in cases of sprained ankle. This causes swelling, muscle spasm, and pain upon movement. To make a diagnosis it is suggested that the patient be put to sleep. Then the foot can be moved so as to stretch these ligaments on the outer side of the ankle.

Ligament Ruptured

If the ligaments are ruptured, a certain one of the bones in the ankle will get out of its normal position. An X-ray of the foot in this position will show the dislocation of the ankle bone. If there is not a great deal of swelling present, it often may be possible to make a diagnosis merely by feeling the ankle.

If, because of improper treatment, the torn ligaments do not heal completely, a person may develop the chronic or recurrent sprained ankle. For this reason, in treating torn ligaments, it is suggested that a substance called procaine be injected into the ankle, the part then to be massaged to reduce the swelling, and a non-padded cast applied. Following this, the patient is advised to walk immediately. After six weeks the cast is removed and an ankle support made of adhesive plaster is applied and worn for two additional weeks.

If a complete rupture of the ligaments has not occurred, Doctor Wright believes that the use of a pressure bandage, that is, a tight bandage, is advisable. This will limit the hemorrhage or bleeding into the tissues. The injection of procaine into the tender areas, together with the use of massage, will relieve the pain and help get rid of any blood clot that may be present.

The relief of pain of simple ankle sprains may be accomplished by the use of contrast baths. That is, the ankle is put into hot water for one-half minute, then cold water for one-half minute, this being repeated several times. Massage is also helpful. Altogether the contrast baths and massage should last about 20 minutes.

Prompt and proper treatment of ankle sprains will help prevent permanent injuries.

SYNOPSIS
SANDRA EDWARDS is an attractive, red-headed dress designer who volunteers to take 11-year-old SPENSER WITHINGTON, an English boy who was bombed out of his home, to live with her on a dude ranch in Arizona until he can return home.

BELINDA ADAMS is the unhappy 12-year-old daughter of GORDON ADAMS, handsome owner of Mesquite Ranch.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

SANDRA HEARD that same routine the next morning. And again the next. First, the telephoned voices. Then the intermingling voices of Brody and the Mexican cook. Finally, the slam of the back screen door which meant Brody was making his way, a package under his arm, up toward the adobe cottage.

Sandra knew. She had studied the procedure that first day with an interest so deep it approached snooping. In fact, she felt guilty about her curiosity.

Spenser made her feel even more guilty. "Why do you sit in here all the time?" he demanded on the third day. It was almost noon; he had been outside for several hours.

"Because I like to read."

"You could read in your own living room. I'd say you'd be more comfortable."

The boy's observation coincided so closely with Sandra's inner thoughts that she was stammering when she answered.

"So I could, Spenser, but I'd have to lug magazines and books back and forth—this is—don't you think it is more simple?"

"Oh, I suppose so," the boy said with indifference.

Sandra condemned her explanation as shamelessly weak. Actually, she sat there to keep track of Gordon Adams through the actions of two of his employees. That, she was compelled to admit to herself.

She wanted to see the man with such eagerness that she could not attribute it all to a wish to help Belinda. Naturally she could do more for the little girl if acquainted with her father. At the same time Sandra was strongly aware of her impatience to meet Gordon Adams strictly for herself, a disturbing thought, inasmuch as Brody's description had been so unfavorable.

Spenser's indifference had vanished. He was being didactic now, an attitude he adored. "Sandra, you'd be better off if you spent more time outdoors. Actually, it's pretty much of all right, now that the sun is shining."

"I shall when I feel better."

"The point is, you'd feel better if you did. Don't wait until you feel chipper to get out. Get out and you will feel chipper. Just look at me." Sandra leaned back in her chair and stretched lazily. "Perhaps you're right. Tell me, dear, what have you been doing this morning?"

"I've been down at the rodeo corral. It's been most jolly. Two of the punchers—Hank and Penny—stayed around this morning to work some of the ponies. They are getting them ready for the dudes."

Sandra smiled. "You mean the other dudes, don't you? Aren't we dudes, too?"

"Certainly not. We'll scarcely be dudes when the others arrive."

Such complacency, after only three days of ranch life, had Sandra at a loss for words. But she did not need any. Spenser had plenty of words. He took a long-sided perch on a corner of the large magazine laden table, swinging the leg that dangled nearer the floor, back and forth in a brisk happy motion.

"The chaps put on quite a show this morning. Hank and Penny. Hank stood outside the fence of one horse's stall and slipped some sort of line—" Spenser frowned. "Blast it, I can't remember what it was called. Anyhow, the line went over the horse's nose. Then Hank went over the fence and mounted—no saddle, Sandra. My word, I was agog!"

"Then Penny opened the gate and actually the horse shot out of there. Then he began to—" Again he frowned, plainly searching for the exact term he had heard. "He buck-jumped, Sandra, and Hank came a cropper. The chap was so surprised. And angry, as angry as the pony had been. Of course, after he'd tossed Hank into the dirt, the horse seemed quite pleased." The British boy gave a giggle of a sort Sandra had never heard before. "He sauntered over and kicked a plank out of the corral fence."

"Why, the slinker!" cried Sandra. "I'd say he deserved a paddling."

"Right! And he got it. Somehow, by kind of slipping up on him and positively soaring through the air, Hank landed atop that pony. Then the pony was the disgraced one, Sandra. Right away he started the same bucking, only this time, Hank was ready for him. Such a battle! At last the horse resigned the sport was over and settled down. He began to do everything Hank wanted him to. Figure eight, looping, a slow walk, anything—it was quite a do."

Sandra started to say: "I'm glad you had such a good time." In the nick of time she caught herself. That would be a mistake. If she showed appreciation the English boy would instantly decide it had not been such a treat after all.

She said instead: "But isn't it dangerous? I'm not sure you should be there."

"Don't be childish, Sandra. I intend to be there when anything is going on. I'd not miss a show like that. Hank is going to train this horse for the big rodeo. He's a natural show horse and will get a ribbon."

Spenser's tone became even more blasé. "Later I'm going to learn to ride myself—western style, I mean. I ride English, naturally."

After a moment, he said: "They tell me Belinda is a splendid rider. I'll be even better, of course." He slid off the table and started toward the kitchen. "I'll see what's for lunch. I could do with a bit of caramel custard."

He was gone several minutes. Sandra glanced up from her book when he returned and asked: "Did you stay to eat your lunch?"

"No, but I found out what we're having. Fried chicken and corn muffins." He sat down on the arm of Sandra's chair. "No caramel custard, blast it. Just canned peaches. Estela said she was too busy making marzipan for Belinda. I ate a piece that looked like an apple. And one that looked like a watermelon."

"Seems Estela is making it for you also."

"Not exactly. But I manage the old girl. I flatter her, y'know." Such wisdom in an 11-year-old left Sandra silent. The youngster went on: "I'll get more of that candy. You wait and see."

Sandra said sternly: "Don't be selfish. If it is Belinda's candy, let her have it."

"I'll not take Belinda's candy. Not when it actually is hers. But so long as Estela is making it, she might as well make some extra and keep in good form. She has plenty of time, anyway. It is for Belinda's birthday and that isn't until some day next week."

"You must find out exactly when so we can give her a gift."

"Oh really, Sandra! Why? What would one give a person like Belinda?"

"The same as you would give any little girl."

"But Belinda is not a typical little girl. I'll wager she eats nails. I'll wager she chews them into bits and never so much as has indignation."

"That's not funny, Spenser," said Sandra coldly. "You can ask Brody for a suggestion."

"No, he's too definitely moldy. If I ask anyone I'll ask Hank or Penny—" He grinned suddenly. "Although I'm sure they'll have some naive suggestion. They are definitely naive y'know."

"Why do you say that?"

"Because Hank said: 'We'll be having company soon.' Then Penny said: 'Yep. He's stopped hitting the jug for this stage.' They thought they were so exceptionally clever."

His lip curled. "As if I wouldn't know they were talking about Belinda's father."

WHO HAS THE LEAD?

SOME CONTRACTS are a sure thing if one defender has the opening lead, whereas they can be set if the other defender has first whack. A corollary fact is that sometimes, if the two defenders should swap hands, an ironclad contract becomes a certainty. In other words, the question of whether a contract is soundly bid, or not, cannot be determined on the basis of the result. There are often telling factors which are completely beyond control of the side which gets into the final contract.

North was probably a smart boy in avoiding a cue-bid of the hostile club suit on his second turn, when he instead invited slam with 5-Spades. He kept East in the dark about the blank in the club suit, and so lured a double from that worthy, who thought he could take two tricks with his minor suit aces. North was really doubly smart, for, if he had cue-bid, East not only would not have doubled, but would have made a sacrifice bid of 7-Clubs, which could be set only two tricks.

East laid down his club A to open the defense and North promptly ruffed it to set up the dummy K. As a consequence he lost only one trick in diamonds, the 2 being tossed on the club K.

Now look at the hands and see what could have been done if West had the lead. An opening of the diamond Q would have doomed the contract to being down two by double-dummy defense. If North covered with the K, and the A won, East could put West back in by underleading the diamond J, whereupon a heart could give East a heart ruff. If North ducked the Q, West could switch then to the heart for the ruff, whereupon East could cash the diamond A. But unfortunately for the defense, East had the lead.

Army Silent on Queries
About Surplus Supplies

President's New Clothes
Symphony of Quiet Color

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—With the war over, some military "secrets" are still unrevealed by the Army. During the war the public generally was denied information on the size of the foodstocks accumulated by the quartermaster general for the armed forces and some of the civilian elements.

The explanation given then was that disclosure of the size of the food pile might enable the enemy to estimate the size of the military establishment. Now, however, the Germans and Japs are defeated.

The office of censorship is out of existence. But two weeks after the war was over, an inquiry to the war department on the size of its butter stocks elicited the reply, "Sorry. Can't give you that information. It is restricted."

While it is likely that the Army had more food on hand than absolutely essential to supply the armed forces, it is also true that a certain margin of surplus was allowed due to the possibility of loss or interruption of the supply line.

If the Army fails to divulge the information, however, there is the possibility that Congress, pressured by still rationed constituents, may insist on an investigation.

President Truman, despite his early start as a haberdasher, has not, until recently, been notably distinguished for his dress. When in the Senate, he looked like a simple businessman, or possibly a lawyer, as he made his way to his Capitol Hill office. He never assumed the eccentric marks of the old time legislators—the Windsor tie, the cutaway coat or the broadbrimmed hat. Observers of his appearance since he entered the White House, however, see a notable change.

How to help your eyes and avoid wasting light

Clean bulbs and bowls often! Make full use of light you have!

Dust and dirt steal more light than you think. Wipe bulbs and reflectors with a damp cloth and you'll get as much as 25 to 30% more light.

Use shades with white linings!

Dark lamp shades or shades turned yellow inside rob your eyes of light... may cut down light as much as 50%. Clean or brush shades regularly; if they're too bad, replace with fresh ones.

By arranging furniture and lamps carefully, you can often make one lamp serve two or more people effectively. But be sure it isn't too far away from either! A difference of 12 inches can reduce the light you get by as much as 50%.

"SOUND THE ALERT, SIS!"

Eyestrain time is here!

School has started. That means home work at night and more use of our eyes—more eye strain. So while you are studying, reading or playing games, remember to guard your eyes from strain with the simple steps like these below.

How to help your eyes and avoid wasting light

Clean bulbs and bowls often!

Make full use of light you have!

Dust and dirt steal more light than you think. Wipe bulbs and reflectors with a damp cloth and you'll get as much as 25 to 30% more light.

Use shades with white linings!

Dark lamp shades or shades turned yellow inside rob your eyes of light... may cut down light as much as 50%. Clean or brush shades regularly; if they're too bad, replace with fresh ones.

By arranging furniture and lamps carefully, you can often make one lamp serve two or more people effectively. But be sure it isn't too far away from either! A difference of 12 inches can reduce the light you get by as much as 50%.

OHIO FARMERS EXPECT ANOTHER BANNER CROP

Corn Harvest Reported To Average 50 Bushels To The Acre

COLUMBUS, Sept. 13—Ohio farmers today apparently were headed for another banner production year with the yield per acre expected to top the 1944 mark for all crops except buckwheat and cigar tobacco.

The Ohio Crop Reporting Service in its September 1 forecast said that Ohio's corn crop would average 50 bushels an acre despite unfavorable growing conditions in August. The anticipated corn crop of 180,600,000 bushels would be the second largest in history.

The anticipated soybean yield of 24,969,000 bushels also would be the second largest on record, the service said, while the anticipated oats crop of 52,890,000 bushels would be the largest recorded since 1931.

Soybeans were expected to run 21 bushels to the acre as compared with a 10-year average of 19.3 bushels. The service said oats would average 43 bushels to the acre as compared with an average of 33.8 bushels.

"Rye production will be down due to the smaller acreage harvested this year," the service said. "Buckwheat yield per acre is not expected to be as large as last year but total production should be greater because of a larger acreage."

Anticipated tobacco production was placed at 16,000,000 pounds of burley and 5,670,000 pounds of cigar filler.

"Dry weather retarded the development of the late potato crop in some areas but there was a heavy outturn from the immediate crop and a yield of 115 bushels per acre is in prospect, the highest since 1941," the service added.

Sugar beets were expected to average 10.5 tons per acre and the total crop was estimated at 220,000 tons.

The service said apple prospects declined during August, with the total commercial crop now expected to drop to only one-fourth of average. Grapes also were expected to be only about one-fourth of the 10-year average. Both would be record lows.

12 BOY SCOUTS ADVANCE RANK; BADGES GIVEN

Several boys received advancement or merit badges at the Pickaway district Boy Scout board of review held Monday night.

WHEN Grandma was a farm girl, she tended the chickens, milked the cows, churned the butter (72 percent of the nation's butter was home-churned then; less than 20 percent today). When she produced more eggs and butter than the family could eat, she would trade the rest for "pin-money" or frills.

Today, Grandma's "pin-money" has become BIG money. Last year it added more than five billion dollars to the income of U. S. farmers. That's more than hogs brought in—or cattle—or sheep. Just look:

1944 Gross Farm Income
Dairy Products.....	$2,969,000,000
Poultry Products.....	$2,295,000,000
Hogs.....	2,796,000,000
Cattle and Calves.....	2,607,000,000
Sheep, Lambs and Wool.....	450,000,000

And believe it or not, dairy products alone returned more money to farm families than the entire corn and wheat crops combined!

Any way you look at it, cows and chickens is a great industry. It is nation-wide, too. California and Texas are crowding close on the leaders—Wisconsin, New York, Minnesota, Iowa, and Pennsylvania. From millions of small dairy herds and chicken flocks in every state, as well as from large-scale operations, comes the enormous volume of dairy and poultry products that are such a vital source of our nation's food.

LET'S KEEP THE MACHINE IN GEAR

In these days of mechanized farming practically everyone is familiar with the gears that make the wheels of tractors, combines, and other equipment go 'round. We know that should one gear be removed or get out of line—or even if a single gear-tooth is broken—the machine won't run smoothly, if at all.

It is much the same with the livestock and meat industry. The three main gears are the producer, the processor and the retailer. When any one of these "driving gears" gets out of order, then the entire industry suffers. Coordination of their interests can contribute greatly to the smooth functioning of the industry as a whole. None of us gains by insisting too vigorously that our part of the industry is the only one which has problems that matter. We gain more by trying to look at our particular problems as they affect all of us. In other words, whatever hurts or helps the producer hurts or helps the processor and the retailer also.

The livestock and meat industry is an important part of the national economic structure. We at Swift & Company believe that we can contribute most to the welfare of America—and ourselves—by promoting harmonious practical working relations between producers, processors and retailers.

Corn COBS Help Fatten Steers

by Paul Gerlaugh
Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station

Corn cobs are worth 50% of their weight in ground shelled corn! That is the outstanding result of cattle-feeding tests conducted here, with Dr. Wise Burroughs and L. E. Kunkle. Steers fed corn-and-cob meal graded the same (mostly choice) as similar steers fed ground shelled corn. They gained as rapidly, and dressed out 60% against 61%. All rations were balanced with 2 pounds soybean meal and 4 to 5 pounds of hay per steer per day.

Incidentally, one lot of steers in the tests was fed "double cob meal" in which an extra cob was ground up with each ear of corn. And here's a surprise... these steers did nearly as well as those that got straight corn-and-cob meal or ground shelled corn. It may be more profitable to feed corn cobs to cattle than to burn them in the kitchen stove.

On the basis of these tests, a ton of corn-and-cob meal is just as good for fattening cattle as 1,800 pounds of ground shelled corn. And the corn-and-cob meal costs less because both time and money are saved by eliminating the shelling operation.

Martha Logan's Recipe for SKILLET DINNER

Pan fry 1 lb. bulk sausage meat with 2 tablespoons onions until brown. Pour off the drippings. Add 2 cups cooked rice, 1 1/2 cups canned tomatoes and 1/2 cup chili sauce. Blend well. Cover and cook over very low heat for 30 minutes. Do not raise the cover. Serve with lettuce salad and crusty bread. Serves 6 to 8.

CULL THE NON-LAYERS Now!

Hens in your flocks that are still producing eggs regularly in the early fall months are superior layers. They are the ones to save for breeding stock, writes H. L. Kempster, chairman of the department of poultry husbandry at the University of Missouri.

Mr. Kempster says it's easy to select the good layers. They are the hens with white bleached shanks and with old, frayed and brittle plumage. The slick hens with yellow legs and smooth feathers are the ones that should be culled out of your flock to make room for mature, ready-to-lay pullets now on the range. As it doesn't pay to lay laying hens, try to examine all individuals in your flock carefully. A red comb and moist, expanded vent are sure signs of a layer. If the vent is dry, puckered and yellow, you may be certain that hen has stopped laying for some time.

ROY GUY REALLY KNOWS SHEEP

When Roy F. Guy, head lamb buyer for Swift & Company at Chicago since 1931, was a lad of 17, he answered an ad in a Kansas City newspaper. That led to his first job with Swift as a $4-a-week messenger boy. Before his first year ended, he had doubled his salary and was getting a start in calf buying. At the ripe age of 22, Roy Guy was head calf buyer at Chicago. He held this post for 10 years and then went back to the starting line to learn lamb buying. In his 46 years with Swift, Roy Guy has bought many million lambs and judged in many a show ring. But his greatest pride is in the boys he hired and trained who have made good with the Company. "I always told a new boy to be careful in choosing his Company... and to stay with it," he says.

Any way you look at it, cows and chickens is a great industry. It is nation-wide, too. California and Texas are crowding close on the leaders—Wisconsin, New York, Minnesota, Iowa, and Pennsylvania. From millions of small dairy herds and chicken flocks in every state, as well as from large-scale operations, comes the enormous volume of dairy and poultry products that are such a vital source of our nation's food.

LET'S KEEP THE MACHINE IN GEAR

In these days of mechanized farming practically everyone is familiar with the gears that make the wheels of tractors, combines, and other equipment go 'round. We know that should one gear be removed or get out of line—or even if a single gear-tooth is broken—the machine won't run smoothly, if at all.

It is much the same with the livestock and meat industry. The three main gears are the producer, the processor and the retailer. When any one of these "driving gears" gets out of order, then the entire industry suffers. Coordination of their interests can contribute greatly to the smooth functioning of the industry as a whole. None of us gains by insisting too vigorously that our part of the industry is the only one which has problems that matter. We gain more by trying to look at our particular problems as they affect all of us. In other words, whatever hurts or helps the producer hurts or helps the processor and the retailer also.

The livestock and meat industry is an important part of the national economic structure. We at Swift & Company believe that we can contribute most to the welfare of America—and ourselves—by promoting harmonious practical working relations between producers, processors and retailers.

Corn COBS Help Fatten Steers

by Paul Gerlaugh
Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station

Corn cobs are worth 50% of their weight in ground shelled corn! That is the outstanding result of cattle-feeding tests conducted there, with Dr. Wise Burroughs and L. E. Kunkle. Steers fed corn-and-cob meal graded the same (mostly choice) as similar steers fed ground shelled corn. They gained as rapidly, and dressed out 60% against 61%. All rations were balanced with 2 pounds soybean meal and 4 to 5 pounds of hay per steer per day.

Incidentally, one lot of steers in the tests was fed "double cob meal" in which an extra cob was ground up with each ear of corn. And here's a surprise . . . these steers did nearly as well as those that got straight corn-and-cob meal or ground shelled corn. It may be more profitable to feed corn cobs to cattle than to burn them in the kitchen stove.

On the basis of these tests, a ton of corn-and-cob meal is just as good for fattening cattle as 1,800 pounds of ground shelled corn. And the corn-and-cob meal costs less because both time and money are saved by eliminating the shelling operation.

CULL THE NON-LAYERS Now!

Hens in your flocks that are still producing eggs regularly in the early fall months are superior layers. They are the ones to save for breeding stock, writes H. L. Kempster, chairman of the department of poultry husbandry at the University of Missouri.

Mr. Kempster says it's easy to select the good layers. They are the hens with white bleached shanks and with old, frayed and brittle plumage. The slick hens with yellow legs and smooth feathers are the ones that should be culled out of your flock to make room for mature, ready-to-lay pullets now on the range. As it doesn't pay to sell laying hens, try to examine all individuals in your flock carefully. A red comb and moist, expanded vent are sure signs of a layer. If the vent is dry, puckered and yellow, you may be certain that hen has stopped laying for some time.

ROY GUY REALLY KNOWS SHEEP

When Roy F. Guy, head lamb buyer for Swift & Company at Chicago since 1931, was a lad of 17, he answered an ad in a Kansas City newspaper. That led to his first job with Swift as a 54-week messenger boy. Before his first year ended, he had doubled his salary and was getting a start in calf buying. At the ripe age of 22, Roy Guy was head calf buyer at Chicago. He held this post for 10 years and then went back to the starting line to learn lamb buying. In his 46 years with Swift, Roy Guy has bought many million lambs and judged in many a show ring. But his greatest pride is in the boys he hired and trained who have made good with the Company. "I always told a new boy to be careful in choosing his Company . . . and to stay with it," he says.

Circleville High School Tigers Open Football Season Friday

HOLY ROSARY 11 FIRST OPPONENT OF LOCAL TEAM

Lineup Uncertain On Eve Of Initial Game Here; 8:30 Kickoff Time

Friday at 8:30 p. m. Circleville high school Tigers and Columbus Holy Rosary will pry off the lid of the 1945 football season in Circleville.

Almost everything was in readiness Thursday for the opening of the gridiron schedule. The squad finished up hard practices Wednesday night under the lights; the field is in shape; the band was rehearsing again Wednesday night. A few last minute details here and there will complete the preparations for the start of what promises to be an interesting football season.

Coach Russell Palm Thursday refused to name 11 starters for the opening contest under the CHS field mazes. Twenty-eight boys have shown much promise and make up the "A" squad. From this group Coach Palm will name his starters.

Several men who have stood out in practice are almost certain to win places on the starting eleven. Several are lettermen from last year while others are newcomers or freshmen who have shown ability and willingness to learn.

In Wednesday night's scrimmage session the first team included: Galen Valentine and Carl Cupp at ends; Dick Strawser and Harry Conley, tackles; Gene Richardson and Jim Carter, guards; John Fissell, center; "Skeet" Smallwood, quarterback; Jack Hennis and Rod Heine, halfbacks; Leonard Hill, fullback. On the second team were: Ed Strawser and Earl Palm, ends; Jim Lytle and Don Crist, tackles; Bob McCoy and Ronnie Hennis, guards; Ed Webb, center; "Buzzie" Rhoads, quarterback; J. H. Stout and Jack Palm, halfbacks; Jack Stout, fullback.

Others on the "A" squad are Bob Steele, a promising back who has been sidelined with an injured wrist and may not be able to play Friday; Carl Radcliff, "Red" Crawford, Dean Smallwood, Dick Koch, C. Sabine.

Also participating in drills which started August 20 have been Ned Wells, Bob Shaw, Dick Francis, Don Hill, R. Starkey, J. Morgan, B. Johnson, Don Woodward, Mark Albright, Bob Phillips, John Beck, H. Lovensheimer, T. Pettit, P. Lovensheimer, W. Garner.

The new coach, Steve Brudinski, was working with the boys Wednesday night. A former high school and college quarterback, he was showing the Tigers tricks that will help them gain more yardage and prevent the opposition from gaining too much ground. He will continue as Palm's assistant for the rest of the season, taking over direction of future teams.

No information about the Columbus team has been received yet but plenty of opposition is anticipated.

Friday's game will open a season that includes several tough games. Following the first contest the Tigers go to Hillsboro for the initial South Central Ohio league game; then travel to Westerville; entertain Grandview; play at Chillicothe; go to Wilmington for a league game and meet Greenfield here in another; travel to Grove City and close the season with Washington C. H. as an SCO foe here.

The CHS band held its first rehearsal Tuesday night and drilled again Wednesday night in preparation for the game. The musicians will be seated in a new spot this season, at the east end of the field. Several new bleachers have been installed in the section formerly used by the band. Other bleachers have been set on the north side of the field.

More than 6,000 married years were represented at a golden wedding party held in San Diego, Cal., recently.

BILL HACKETT WILL RETURN TO GRID NEXT WEEK

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 13.—Ohio State University's football hopes received a "shot in the arm" when it was announced that All-American guard Bill Hackett would don his gridiron togs again next Monday. Hackett is captain of the 1945 squad.

Dr. Roy J. Secrest has reversed an earlier decision and informed Coach Carroll C. Widdoes that it would be all right for the spunky London, O., guard to work out with the team in practice. He still may miss Ohio State's early games, however.

Hackett has been under treatment for head injuries suffered in an automobile accident last December. Widdoes said he expected to play Hackett at his usual right guard post which will make it necessary to find another spot for Warren Ambling.

Ambling was moved to right guard when it looked like Hackett might be out for the season.

FISHER WANTS TO JOIN BUCK GRIDIRON TEAM

COLUMBUS, Sept. 13.—Dick Fisher, left halfback star for the Bucks in 1939-40-41, may return to the Ohio State campus and join the 1945 football squad.

Fisher has informed Coach Carroll Widdoes that he will become eligible for a discharge from the Navy September 15 and wants to return to finish his work toward a degree.

A check with Big Ten officials revealed that he is eligible to play with the Bucks if he enrolls in school.

Fisher played with Bernie Bierman's Iowa Seahawks of 1942 and since then has been on Navy assignment in South America. At present he is working out with the football team at the Naval air base at Jacksonville, Fla.

TENSION HIGH IN MAJOR RACES

Senators Gain Half Game; Cubs Keep Margin; Reds Win With Home Runs

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The tension was terrific today in the stretch stages of both pennant races and it was hard to tell at first glance just which teams were affected most in the battles between the Tigers and Senators in the American and the Cubs and Cardinals in the National.

Each of the four teams had its problems.

The Tigers were up against it because of injuries, although they weren't saying much about it. Their big winner, Hal Newhouse, warmed up between games of yesterday's divided double header with the A's at Philadelphia but didn't go because of a sore shoulder. Hank Greenberg and Eddie Mayo are out of the lineup and the team is tired after a lot of double headers and no open dates. The 16-inning second game defeat by the A's didn't help any. The Tigers took the opener, 7 to 4, with Rudy York leading the way, hitting a home run and a two-run single.

The second game went to the A's, 3 to 2, on Bobby Estalella's double which scored Mayo Smith. Dizzy Trout being declared the loser on a relief job which lasted one inning. It was his fourth mound appearance in five days, indicating how short the Tigers are of front line mound strength.

Washington reduced the Tiger lead to a game and a half with a 5 to 1 victory over the visiting Indians, but all is not roses for Manager Ossie Bluege. He got a four-hit job out of Roger Wolff, who scored his 18th win, but had to fine infielder Fred Vaughan $100 for a misplay that cost the Senators the Tuesday game with Chicago. Vaughan failed to cover second properly on a pitchout, the Chicago player going to third when the ball went into center field. Bluege said. The Senators clinched last night's game with a three-run rally off Steve Gromek in the sixth.

The Cubs were troubled in the National because of the five games they still have left with the contending Cardinals, whom they haven't been able to beat with consistency. They stayed two and a half games ahead yesterday when Hank Wyse returned to form to pitch a 4 to 0 victory over the last place Phillies. However, they still were unable to hit solidly, getting only seven safe blows to nine for the Phils. They made all their runs in the third when Dick Barrett filled the bases with walks and Don Johnson's single. Then another walk forced home a run and Andy Pafko drove in three more with a double.

The Cards topped the Dodgers, 3 to 2, in a successful debut for Lefty Art Lopatka. But they still have to face the enraged Dodgers in two games tonight and the long standing bitterness between the clubs is intensified because Cardinal boss, Sam Breadon, insisted the Dodgers play a double header yesterday after a day long train ride. However, rain caused postponement of the second game.

The Reds topped the Giants at Cincinnati, 4 to 3. Frank McCormick and Hank Sauer provided the margin with successive homers in the sixth. The Reds beat Harry Feldman, who previously had topped them five straight times.

BREWERS, SAINTS SCORE WINS IN PLAYOFF SERIES

By United Press
The pennant-winning Milwaukee Brewers were back in the running in the post-season playoffs today after winning a 4 to 3 overtime contest from the Louisville Colonels.

The Brewers, who for the past two years have won the Association title but been nudged out of a place in the "Little World Series" with the International league representative, squeezed in a run in the bottom half of the 11th inning to tie the playoff series, one and one.

In the lower half of the bracket, second place Indianapolis absorbed its second defeat from the St. Paul Saints. The Saints staged a 10-hit scoring spurge and batted out three Indianapolis pitchers for an 8 to 2 win.

At Indianapolis, the Saints bunched five hits in the fifth inning to push over five runs and drive starting pitcher Glen Fletcher to the showers. They clinched the game with three unearned runs in the ninth.

GUS DORAZIO CHARGED WITH NUMBER WRITING

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Former Heavyweight boxer Gus Dorazio, already charged with draft evasion by the F. B. I., was held in $600 bail today charged with numbers writing.

Dorazio was held in bail yesterday after detectives testified they found 50 number slips in his pockets when they arrested him near the wharf section. They charged him with writing numbers among stevedore gangs.

Dorazio was held in $1,500 bail last Saturday when the F. B. I. said he falsely secured occupational deferments to avoid military service.

games, the Yankees topped the visiting White Sox, 3 to 1, behind Charley (Red) Ruffing's pitching and homers by Russ Derry and Charley Keller. They followed it up with a 9 to 8 victory in 10 innings. Aaron Robinson's single scored Oscar Grimes with the winning run after Nick Etten and Frankie Crosetti kept the Yankees in the game with homers. Johnny Dickshot and Cass Michaels hit Chicago homers.

The Browns got four-hit pitching from Bob Muncie to defeat the Red Sox, 9 to 2, at Boston. It was his 12th win against three losses. Vernon Stephens hit his 22nd homer in a six-run fourth inning to clinch it.

Hank Greenberg and Eddie Mayo are out of the lineup and the team is tired after a lot of double headers and no open dates. The 16-inning second game defeat by the A's didn't help any. The Tigers took the opener, 7 to 4, with Rudy York leading the way, hitting a home run and a two-run single.

The second game went to the A's, 3 to 2, on Bobby Estelle's double which scored Mayo Smith, Dizzy Trout being declared the loser on a relief job which lasted one inning. It was his fourth mound appearance in five days, indicating how short the Tigers are of front line mound strength.

Washington reduced the Tiger lead to a game and a half with a 5 to 1 victory over the visiting Indians, but all is not roses for Manager Ossie Bluege. He got a four-hit job out of Roger Wolff, who scored his 18th win, but had to fine infielder Fred Vaughan $100 for a misplay that cost the Senators the Tuesday game with Chicago. Vaughan failed to cover second properly on a pitchout, the Chicago player going to third when the ball went into center field. Bluege said. The Senators clinched last night's game with a three-run rally off Steve Gromek in the sixth.

The Cubs were troubled in the National because of the five games they still have left with the contending Cardinals, whom they haven't been able to beat with consistency. They stayed two and a half games ahead yesterday when Hank Wyse returned to form to pitch a 4 to 0 victory over the last place Phillies. However, they still were unable to hit solidly, getting only seven safe blows to nine for the Phils. They made all their runs in the third when Dick Barrett filled the bases with walks and Don Johnson's single. Then another walk forced home a run and Andy Parko drove in three more with a double.

The Cards topped the Dodgers, 3 to 2, in a successful debut for Lefty Art Lopatka. But they still have to face the enraged Dodgers in two games tonight and the long standing bitterness between the clubs is intensified because Cardinal boss, Sam Breadon, insisted the Dodgers play a double header yesterday after a day long train ride. However, rain caused postponement of the second game.

The Reds topped the Giants at Cincinnati, 4 to 3. Frank McCormick and Hank Sauer provided the margin with successive homers in the sixth. The Reds beat Harry Feldman, who previously had topped them five straight times.

BREWERS, SAINTS SCORE WINS IN PLAYOFF SERIES

By United Press
The pennant-winning Milwaukee Brewers were back in the running in the post-season playoffs today after winning a 4 to 3 overtime contest from the Louisville Colonels.

The Brewers, who for the past two years have won the Association title but been nudged out of a place in the "Little World Series" with the International league representative, squeezed in a run in the bottom half of the 11th inning to tie the playoff series, one and one.

In the lower half of the bracket, second place Indianapolis absorbed its second defeat from the St. Paul Saints. The Saints staged a 10-hit scoring spurge and battered out three Indianapolis pitchers for an 8 to 2 win.

At Indianapolis, the Saints bunched five hits in the fifth inning to push over five runs and drive starting pitcher Glen Fletcher to the showers. They clinched the game with three unearned runs in the ninth.

GUS DORAZIO CHARGED WITH NUMBER WRITING

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Former Heavyweight boxer Gus Dorazio, already charged with draft evasion by the F. B. I., was held in $600 bail today charged with numbers writing.

Dorazio was held in bail yesterday after detectives testified they found 50 number slips in his pockets when they arrested him near the wharf section. They charged him with writing numbers among stevedore gangs.

Dorazio was held in $1,500 bail last Saturday when the F. B. I. said he falsely secured occupational deferments to avoid military service.

games, the Yankees topped the visiting White Sox, 3 to 1, behind Charley (Red) Ruffing's pitching and homers by Russ Derry and Charley Keller. They followed it up with a 9 to 8 victory in 10 innings. Aaron Robinson's single scored Oscar Grimes with the winning run after Nick Etten and Frankie Crosetti kept the Yankees in the game with homers. Johnny Dickshot and Cass Michaels hit Chicago homers.

The Browns got four-hit pitching from Bob Muncie to defeat the Red Sox, 9 to 2, at Boston. It was his 12th win against three losses. Vernon Stephens hit his 22nd homer in a six-run fourth inning to clinch it.

ABLE SUBSTITUTE
Georgia Carroll, the talented vocal soloist on the "College of Musical Knowledge," is off for a week's vacation with her husband, Kay Kyser, the Ol' Professor, who has returned to this country after a two-month command performance entertaining servicemen in the Pacific. Kay and Georgia are keeping their vacation plans secret for the time being, but they will both be back on the College faculty on the broadcast of September 19.
Mary Mead of Shreveport, La., who sang all over the Pacific war area with Kay's USO troupe, will be a guest star on the "College of Musical Knowledge" September 12 while Georgia is vacationing.

MELODRAMA FEATURED
"Christmas Holiday," gripping melodrama which will star Loretta Young and David Bruce on the Radio Theatre, will be heard Monday. The nation's full No. 1 full-hour dramatic show airs at 9:00 p. m. Abigail Martin, played by Loretta Young is a beautiful young orphan who falls in love and marries Robert Manette, a strange, charming youth. The day after their marriage Abigail discovers he has a criminal past. Despite her valiant attempts to protect him, Manette is sentenced to jail.

SOUNDLESS SNORES
Arthur "Dagwood" Lake, who is a plastics manufacturer as well as a comedy actor, isn't the only member of the "Blondie" radio cast who makes a sideline of turning out inventions. Billy Gould, sound-effects technician who makes the bark of "Daisy" on the Sunday "Blondie" program, has just applied for a patent on a Rube Goldberg-like device he has invented to take the sound out of a snore!
MARR SUCCEEDS KABIBBLE
Ish Kabibble, hair-banged comedian, who has been with Kay Kyser's "College of Musical Knowledge" for 14 years, was inducted recently into the armed forces. Eddie (Tell-Ya-What-I'm-Gonna-Do) Marr, noted radio comic, replaces Ish. The show is aired on Wednesdays at 10 p. m.
RADIO NEWS NOTES
For the first time in military history a GI received his discharge over the air, when Kay Kyser presented the soldier with his mustering-out papers and travel instructions on a recent special broadcast from Rizal Stadium in Manila. Kyser, entertaining overseas troops, surprised the soldier, who up to broadcast time, had no inkling of what was about to happen.
Jack Meakin, new music director on "The Great Gildersleeve," is a radio producer as well as an air maestro. His most recent producing assignment was with Hedda Hopper's program and he has handled the stopwatch on many other airers. Strangely enough, Meakin's first radio job was in San Francisco many years ago where he conducted the orchestra for "The Spanish Songster," who was Hal Peary, now the star of "The Great Gildersleeve."

ONE WHALE LIVER OFTEN WEIGHS 1,300 POUNDS, AND IS RICH IN VITAMINS

Loretta Young is a beautiful young orphan who falls in love and marries Robert Manette, a strange, charming youth. The day after their marriage Abigail discovers he has a criminal past. Despite her valiant attempts to protect him, Manette is sentenced to jail.

history a GI received his discharge over the air, when Kay Kyser presented the soldier with his mustering-out papers and travel instructions on a recent special broadcast from Rizal Stadium in Manila. Kyser, entertaining overseas troops, surprised the soldier, who up to broadcast time, had no inkling of what was about to happen.

Orin W. Dreisbach, Jr. Will Study Agriculture In College In Germany

A Pickaway county farm boy is learning how to farm in Berlin. Enrolled in the Armed Forces Institute, Private Orin W. Dreisbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orin W. Dreisbach, Sr., route 1, will attend agriculture school while on occupational duty in Germany with the All American Division, the 82nd Airborne, in Berlin this winter.

In a letter to his parents, he told them of his plans to enroll in AFI along with his patrol work.

He wrote his parents that he had visited some of the best known ruins in Berlin, and had been in Hitler's private office and residence. His mother said she presumed he meant that he had visited the Chancellery.

'HARWICK' HAS LENGTHY RECORD FBI ANNOUNCES

Jean Harwick, said to be mentally ill and committed to the Columbus State hospital last week by the probate court judge, has been identified by the Federal Bureau of Investigation as John Hutchins, who escaped from the State Prison Training School at Plankinton, S. D., in 1919.

Under the name of Francis Abell, he was sentenced to the South Dakota state prison in Sioux Falls, S. D., on September 20, 1920 for 5 years. He was charged with burglary.

For breaking and larceny, he was committed to the Jefferson City, Mo., prison March 21, 1934 under the name of John Hutchins.

Since 1934, he has been arrested on 12 other charges, including one on investigation of Selective Service Act in 1944.

A notation on the report from the FBI said: "Served 3 years in Eldora School, Iowa, 1917; violated his parole and came to South Dakota, and was sent to State Prison Training School at Plankinton, S. D., 1919 for burglary and escaped from there in July, 1920, and apparently was in a plot to kill the night watchman there later on. Served 3 years 9 months in the South Dakota State Penitentiary; 2 years 4 months in the Missouri State Penitentiary."

TRUMAN REJECTS SOCIALIST TALK AS JUST 'SILLY'

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—President Truman has rejected as "a perfectly silly conclusion" a suggestion that this country should not give financial aid to Britain lest it be in the position of supporting a socialist government.

U. S. and British delegations are now conferring here on solutions for Britain's postwar economic difficulties.

Mr. Truman said at his news conference that there had been suggestions in some Washington quarters that U. S. aid would be used to finance British socialism. "I think that is a perfectly silly conclusion," he said, permitting direct quotation of this phrase.

He went on to say that the British have every right to have any kind of government they want and that it is none of our business as long as this government is on friendly terms with the British.

Fear that U. S. money would be used to help the Laborite British government to finance a Socialist program has been voiced in congress.

Britain wants credit for the billions she spent before lend-lease.

TRAIN STRIKES STALLED AUTO; 14 ARE INJURED

BUCYRUS, O., Sept. 13—The Pennsylvania railroad's west-bound Red Arrow limited Wednesday struck a stalled automobile and derailed at Tiro, O., northeast of here, injuring 14 persons.

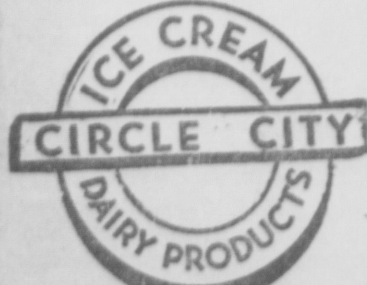

The locomotive and seven cars were reported to have gone off the tracks. The engine and several cars overturned.

Most seriously injured were Engineer C. F. Snyder and Fireman C. R. Coerst, both of Toledo, who were scalded badly by escaping steam from the wrecked locomotive.

Others injured included K. F. Abbott, of Mansfield, O.; Miss Leola Robinson of Corona, N. Y.; Mrs. W. R. Primas, of Johnstown, Pa.; A. J. Blay, of Brookline, and W. E. Jefferson, Herbert Miller, W. N. Pitts and Lillian I. Johnson, all of New York City.

His mother said she presumed he meant that he had visited the Chancellor.

He also wrote of seeing the subway in which 15,000 German civilians were drowned by angry Nazis just before the end of the war. The people, he related, were drowned when they fled below ground from the terrific air and land bombardment going on between the Allied and German armies. Nazis, seething with anger at their so-called weakness, turned a flood of water into the subway tunnels.

Dreisbach said the subways still had a horrible stench, and that many decomposed bodies were still in the tunnels.

He mentioned that he had seen and walked beneath the famed Brandenburg Gate, which is on the outer eastern edge of Berlin. At the present time, Pvt. Dreisbach's company is the guard for General Eisenhower and other important American generals who are making their headquarters on an island, formerly the home of Goebbels and other high ranking Nazi officers.

Pvt. Dreisbach is one of many American soldiers in the occupation Army who will be attending school in the Army college in Europe. Similar courses will be inaugurated in Japan when all the details of the occupation are worked out.

He sends his parents this address: Pvt. Orin W. Dreisbach, Jr., 35614265, Company A, 505 Parachute Infantry, APO 469, c-o Post Master, New York, New York.

It wasn't until 1764, two years after a secret treaty had been signed, that the people of Louisiana learned that the territory had been transferred from France to Spain.
